A whole new kind of show is coming to the Minden Opera House. July 5 will be Kids' Night at MOH with magic, music, and fun targeted at families with young children.

The cast of performers for the event includes beat-boxer D-Wayne, magician Jeff Quinn, and musical performers The String Beans. With much consideration, the acts were selected to bring some of the most popular entertainment in the state together for a single night of family entertainment.

D-Wayne is a positive, energetic performer who has been practicing the art of voice for nearly a decade. He was trained by some of the best in the country and has performed, hosted, and spoken for audiences at a wide variety of events.
